Job Purpose

To carry out professional duties and to have responsibility for an assigned class.
To be responsible for the day-to-day work and management of the class and the safety and welfare of the pupils, during on-site and off-site activities.
To promote the aims and objectives of the school and maintain its philosophy of education.

Main duties and responsibilities

- To create and manage a caring, supportive, purposeful and stimulating environment which is conducive to children's learning.
- To plan and teach challenging, well organised lessons and sequences of lessons that:
 - are informed by relevant and up to date subject, curriculum and pedagogical knowledge;
 - reflect the wide range of needs of KS2 children (two year groups) and foster independent learning where appropriate
 - use a range of teaching and learning strategies and resources.
 - take account of prior learning and attainment of those they teach and underpin sustained progress and effective transitions
 - to plan for and deliver quality literacy and maths lessons in line with school planning
- To identify clear teaching objectives and learning outcomes, with appropriate challenge and high expectations.
- To support and guide learners so that they can reflect on their learning, identify the progress they have made, set positive targets for improvements and become successful independent learners.

- To ensure that Safeguarding procedures are understood and fully implemented.
- To maintain good order and discipline among the pupils, safeguarding their well-being.
- To plan opportunities to develop the social, emotional and cultural aspects of pupils' learning and take account of diversity, promote equality and inclusion in line with British values.
- To foster the spiritual development of children as part of their personal development.
- To maintain a regular system of monitoring, assessment, record-keeping and reporting of children's progress using targets, termly tracking and other school systems
- To use classroom displays as a teaching tool and a reflection of children's work in progress and an acknowledgement of achievement as well as for information.
- To ensure effective use of support staff within the classroom, including any volunteers.
- To be part of a whole school team, actively involved in decision-making on the preparation, development and implementation of policies and programmes of study, teaching materials, resources, methods of teaching and pastoral arrangements.
- To ensure that school policies are reflected in daily practice.
- To communicate and consult with parents over all aspects of their children's education – academic, social and emotional.
- To liaise with outside agencies when appropriate e.g. Educational Psychologist.
- To evaluate performance through continuing professional development and act upon advice and feedback and be open to coaching and mentoring.
- To attend weekly staff meetings.
- To promote and model our Christian values.

This School is committed to safeguarding children and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We will ensure that all our recruitment and selection practices reflect this commitment. All shortlisted candidates will be asked to complete a criminal records self-disclosure form and successful candidates will be subject to Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks along with other relevant employment checks.
