Job Purpose

To carry out professional duties and to have responsibility for an assigned class. To be responsible for the day-to-day work and management of the class and the safety and welfare of the pupils, during on-site and off-site activities. To promote the aims and objectives of the school and maintain its philosophy of education.

Main duties and responsibilities

- To create and manage a caring, supportive, purposeful and stimulating environment which is conducive to children's learning.
- To plan and teach challenging, well organised lessons and sequences of lessons that:
  - are informed by relevant and up to date subject, curriculum and pedagogical knowledge;
  - reflect the wide range of needs of KS2 children (two year groups) and foster independent learning where appropriate
  - use a range of teaching and learning strategies and resources.
  - take account of prior learning and attainment of those they teach and underpin sustained progress and effective transitions
  - to plan for and deliver quality literacy and maths lessons in line with school planning
- To identify clear teaching objectives and learning outcomes, with appropriate challenge and high expectations.
- To support and guide learners so that they can reflect on their learning, identify the progress they have made, set positive targets for improvements and become successful independent learners.
- To ensure that Safeguarding procedures are understood and fully implemented.
- To maintain good order and discipline among the pupils, safeguarding their well-being.

- To plan opportunities to develop the social, emotional and cultural aspects of pupils' learning and take account of diversity, promote equality and inclusion in line with British values.
- To foster the spiritual development of children as part of their personal development.
- To maintain a regular system of monitoring, assessment, record-keeping and reporting of children's progress using targets, termly tracking and other school systems
- To use classroom displays as a reflection of children's work in progress and an acknowledgement of achievement as well as for information.
- To ensure effective use of support staff within the classroom, including any volunteers.
- To be part of a whole school team, actively involved in decision-making on the preparation, development and implementation of policies and programmes of study, teaching materials, resources, methods of teaching and pastoral arrangements.
- To ensure that school policies are reflected in daily practice.
- To communicate and consult with parents over all aspects of their children's education – academic, social and emotional.
- To liaise with outside agencies when appropriate eg. Educational Psychologist.
- To evaluate performance through continuing professional development and act upon advice and feedback and be open to coaching and mentoring.
- To attend weekly staff meetings.
- To promote and model our Christian values.
